It follows that, as of 27 March 2023, the following 9 Shareholders adhered to the SHA:

- Fondazione CRT;
- Fondazione Cassa di Risparmio di Lucca;
- Fondazione Cassa di Risparmio di Trento e Rovereto;
- Fondazione Cassa di Risparmio di Alessandria;
- Fondazione ENPAM;
- Fondazione Cassa di Risparmio di Carpi;
- Fondazione Cassa di Risparmio di Reggio Emilia Pietro Manodori;
- Inarcassa - Cassa Nazionale di Previdenza ed Assistenza per gli Ingegneri ed Architetti Liberi Professionisti;
- Cassa Nazionale di Previdenza e Assistenza Forense; collectively, holders of no. 126,318,707 ordinary Banco BPM shares, representing 8.33% of the Bank's share capital (hereinafter jointly "Parties").

With reference to the stakes held by the Parties, the SHA provides that the Parties continue to hold the full availability of the shares on the basis of any title whatsoever, and may transfer, even temporarily, the ownership or the availability to third parties, unconditionally or without limitations, and may freely purchase new shares, in compliance with applicable regulations. In accordance with the above principle, the Parties may: a) establish collaterals (vincoli reali di garanzia), usufructs or any other encumbrance on their shares or part of them; b) issue convertible instruments having their shares or part of them as underlying; c) enter into derivative agreements or other trading instruments involving the forward sale of their shares, or part of them, or the total or partial transfer of the financial effects relating to such shares. The Parties will remain parties to the SHA to the extent they retain their voting rights in the Bank's general Shareholders' meetings with respect to their shares involved in the foregoing transactions. Without prejudice to the absence of any restriction with regard to the purchase or sale of the shares and without prejudice to the mere consultation purposes of the SHA, each Party undertakes not to execute transactions that could trigger the launch of mandatory public tender offers. Any defaulting Party shall indemnify all other Parties for incurred costs and expenses.

The Parties undertake to notify the Chairman of the SHA within 5 (five) days of any sale and purchase transaction completed (including forward or convertible instruments), so that the Chairman of the SHA has a constantly updated picture of the shares owned by each of the Parties.

4. Contents of the SHA

By entering into the SHA the Parties – acknowledged the common interest in the growth and consolidation of the Bank and the related banking group (the "Group") and with the aim of ensuring a single direction whilst respecting the autonomy and independence of each Party – provided for the procedures to hold meetings and share considerations on the performance of the Bank and the Group and on the following subjects.

The Parties also acknowledged that no Shareholders' agreements relating to Banco BPM, other than the SHA, will be allowed to be entered into by any of the Parties.

4.1 Prior consultation obligations

The SHA provides for prior consultation obligations undertaken by each Party in relation to the exercise of the voting rights pertaining to the overall shares held in the Bank. Particularly, the Parties undertook to consult each other in order to define a common action on the Bank's programmatic and industrial guidelines regarding, for instance and without limitation, (i) the general performance of the Group;; (ii) the possible candidacies for the appointment as members of the Board of Directors and/or of the Board of Statutory Auditors of Banco BPM; as well as (iii) strategic and/or extraordinary transactions to be approved by the extraordinary Shareholders' meetings of the Bank, within the framework of the consultation procedures contained in the SHA (as described in the following point 5) and, in any case, without prejudice to the equal information with respect to the generality of the Shareholders of Banco BPM.

The Parties agreed on the Parties' full freedom to vote in the Shareholders' meetings, either ordinary or extraordinary, since the Parties' consultation is functional solely to the exercise of an informed vote. Similarly, the resolutions adopted by the Parties' Meetings will not have any binding legal effect on the vote exercise by any Party in the context of the Bank's Shareholders' meetings.

5. Bodies of the SHA

The SHA provides for three bodies: the Parties' Meeting, the Committee and the Chairman of the SHA.

5.1 The Parties' Meetings

The Parties' Meeting is constituted with all Parties and resolves upon: a) the admission of new parties to the SHA; b) the submission by the Parties of lists of candidates for the election of the Board of Directors and/or of the Board of the Statutory Auditors of Banco BPM; c) the appointment of members and officers relating to the Committee and to the Chairman of the SHA; d) any other matter not expressly indicated in the SHA.

The Parties' Meeting is convened by the Chairman of the SHA or upon request of at least three Parties. The Parties' Meeting resolves with the favorable vote of the number of parties representing at least three quarters of the shares subject to the SHA.

The Parties' Meetings shall meet – for consultation purposes only – approximately at least 30 days prior to every ordinary and/or extraordinary Shareholders' meeting of the Bank and within 30 days following the disclosure of the half-yearly report (relazione semestrale) of the Bank.

The aim of the Parties' Meetings is to discuss and deepen, also at the presence of representatives of the Bank, the general performance and, with reference to Parties' Meetings to be held prior to ordinary and extraordinary Shareholders' meetings of the Bank, all other items on the agenda, in any case on the basis of the public information disclosed by the Bank prior to the relevant Shareholders' meeting. All Parties' Meetings to be held at the presence of the Bank's representatives shall be conducted in the context of equal information with respect to the market, since those meetings are included in the investor relations policy adopted by the Group and aimed at regularly discussing with investors and stakeholders.

This document is a courtesy translation into English of the essential information on the Shareholders' agreement entered into by and between certain Shareholders of Banco BPM S.p.A. In case of any discrepancies between the English and the Italian version, the Italian version shall prevail.

With regard to resolutions relating the submission of lists of candidates for the Banks' Board of Directors and/or of the Board of Statutory Auditors, possible lists shall comply with the By-Laws of the Bank, Bank of Italy's Regulation, the Corporate Code of Conduct (Codice di Autodisciplina), and in general with all applicable regulations.

5.2 The Committee

The Committee is composed by three members, including the Chairman of the SHA, who remain in office for three years and cease to hold the office due to expiration of term, death, supervening incapacity, resignation, or revocation by the Parties' Meeting.

The Committee shall meet upon calling of the Chairman of the SHA or upon request by two members. The Committee shall meet prior to each Parties' Meeting. The Committee shall be in charge of preparatory and organizational functions, in addition to any other task assigned to it by the Parties' Meeting. Upon the invitation of the Chairman of the SHA, representatives of the Bank may attend the Committee's meetings.

5.3 The Chairman of the SHA

The Chairman of the SHA, appointed by the Parties' Meetings, chairs the Parties' Meeting and the Committee, as well as performs organizational functions and files the lists of candidates for the Banks' Board of Directors and/or of the Board of Statutory Auditors.

6. Term

The SHA shall be in force for three years from the Signing Date and shall be automatically renewed upon expiration in case no termination notice is served by one or more Parties, to be communicated to the other Parties at least 1 (one) month prior to the original or extended expiration date of the SHA.

7. Filing of the SHA with the Companies' Register

The SHA was originally filed on 22 December 2020 with the Milan Monza Brianza Lodi Companies' Register and was subsequently updated, on 23 July 2021 and on 20 October 2022, via a filing with the same Register.

8. Website where the essential information is available
