

EDOARDO MARIA GINEVRA

Co-General Manager CFO

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITY

Co-General Manager Chief Financial Officer (CFO): graduated in Political Economy with honours in 1988, he first worked (from 1990 to 1999) at the Bank of Italy, Credit and Financial Supervision, "off-site" supervision sector. Subsequently he held, at McKinsey, positions as Consultant (from 1999 to 2005) and Partner (from 2006 to 2012), participating in various projects, always focusing on the banking sector, both in Italy and in international contexts. From 2012 to 2015 he was Partner of the Italian office and a member of the EMEA Finance & Risk practice at Oliver Wyman, with responsibilities for covering banking customers/supervisory bodies divided between Italy (mainly commercial banks), Greece and Cyprus (in both cases, mainly Central Banks). In 2015, he joined Banca Popolare di Milano, where he held the position of Chief Risk Officer until 2016. At the time of the merger between BPM and Banco Popolare (January 2017), he assumed the position of Head of the NPL Department of Banco BPM, of which he became Chief Financial Officer in June 2019. Since May 2019 he has been the Chairperson of the Board of Directors of Gardant Liberty Servicing; since June 2019 a Director of the Interbank Deposit Protection Fund (FITD) and since March 2020 a member of the Board of Directors of Agos Ducato. On 20 March 2023, he was appointed as Co-General Manager CFO of Banco BPM.
