

EDOARDO MARIA GINEVRA

Co-General Manager CFO

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITY

Co-General Manager Chief Financial Officer (CFO): graduated in Political Economy with honors and dignity of publication in 1988, he initially worked at the Bank of Italy, where he held positions of responsibility in the field of ongoing supervision "off- site" of Banking Groups until 1999. Subsequently at McKinsey he held positions of Consultant (from 1999 to 2005) and Partner (from 2006 to 2012), participating in various projects, always focused on the banking sector, both in Italy and in contexts International. From 2012 to 2015 he was Partner of Oliver Wyman's Italian office, Within Oliver Wyman member of the EMEA Finance & Risk practice, with responsibility for coverage of bank clients/supervisory bodies divided between Italy (mainly commercial banks), Greece and Cyprus (in both cases, mainly Central Banks). From 2015 to 2017, he was Head of the Chief Risk Officer Function of Banca Popolare di Milano, divided into four structures: Risk Management and Capital Adequacy, Validation, Regulatory Relationship and Risk Control.

Since January 2017 he has been Head of the NPL Department of Banco BPM, of which he became Chief Financial Officer in June 2019. Since May 2019 he has been Chairman of the Board of Directors of Gardant Liberty Servicing, since June 2019 director of the Interbank Deposit Protection Fund (FITD) and since March 2020 member of the Board of Directors of Agos Ducato. On 20 December 2022 he was appointed Co-General Manager CFO of Banco BPM, with receipt on 20 March 2023 of the positive outcome of the suitability assessment conducted by the Supervisory Authority.