

NADIA VALENTI

Statutory Auditor

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITY

Graduated in 2000 in Law and Business Administration at Bocconi University of Milan; in 2007-2009 she obtained a Capital Market Specialization at the London Stock Exchange, and in 2019 the Certificate in Storytelling and Executive Communication at H-Farm Education, Roncade (TV). She had been Arthur Andersen's Associate Consultant - Audit Department from September 2000 to January 2002. From January 2002 she joined ProcewatehouseCoopers where she held the role of Senior Consultant - Transaction Services Group both in Milan and London. In May 2007 she joined Ernst & Young network, where she held the role of Manager / Senior Manager and then Director performing control and supervisory activities, in particular she held the role of Senior Manager for Ernst & Young, Moscow from May 2007 to December 2009; the role of Senior Manager-Capital Manager Group of Ernst & Young Milan from January 2010 to March 2015; the role of Executive Director of Ernst & Young, Dubai from March 2015 to July 2016. From September 2016 to December 2017 she held the position as Regional Chief Financial Officer for South East Asia for Savino Del Bene Group, Singapore. Since December 2017 she holds the office as Head of Global Business Planning of Habasit Group, and since July 2019 she is a Member of Angels4Women: a business association, promoted by AXA and Impact Hub, focused on developing and supporting exclusively female entrepreneurship. Since 4 April 2020 she is also effective Statutory Auditor of Banco BPM S.p.A.